

Video Use Consent Form

To participate in the 46th Mandarin Speech Contest hosted virtually by Chinese Language Teachers Association of California (CLTAC), contestants will create video recordings of their speech and submit links to the CLTAC Speech Contest Committee. The videos will be watched by judges, who are language teaching professionals recruited for the speech contest. Clips of the winning speeches might be played at the award ceremony.

Decision to participate: The decision to participate in this virtual event is completely voluntary. Participants are free to change their minds at any time and withdraw their registrations.

For questions about this event: If you have any questions or concerns about this event, including its procedures, risks and benefits, please feel free to contact the Speech Contest Committee at cltac.speech@gmail.com
